

NYET NYET'S PICNIC

AUSTRALIAN INDIGENOUS BUNYIP STORIES

'Be prepared to be scared witless' - HERALD SUN

SNUFF PUPPETS

Nyet Nyet's Picnic revives ancient stories from the Dreamtime, creating a scary, enlightening and engaging night of theatre.

Giant puppets, dance, music, light and fire come together in this entertaining exploration of local monsters, bunyips and spirit creatures. The show vividly brings to life these stories with the aim of ensuring that Australian Indigenous mythology be remembered and nurtured.

Nyet Nyet's Picnic is a collaboration between Indigenous and non-Indigenous artists.

'Squeals of terror and delight were drawn from the audience'
THE ADVERTIZER

'kept thousands of children on the edge of their seats'
KOORI MAIL

'The powers that these mythical creatures exercise are taken very seriously' - THE AGE
